

MORNING APPEAL

TUESDAY.....FEBRUARY 14

THE SYMPATHY FOR D'LESSEPS.

A few weeks ago all France was howling at the heels of De Lesseps and demanding that justice be meted out to the man who had betrayed his trust to the French people and robbed his countrymen of millions.

Now that he has been sentenced to five years imprisonment, all France is bowed down with sympathy for the old man and they are shouting themselves hoarse with "bravos" for his beautiful and plucky wife who stands bravely beside her husband amid the storm that breaks about him in his old age.

France is nothing if not sentimental and theatrical. Stripped of all its glamor and romance, it is simply a case of where a man, trusted implicitly by a whole nation, shamefully betrayed his trust, has been detected in his crimes and convicted. If there is any sympathy to be disposed of, it belongs to the thousands of poverty stricken homes all over France, who are now trying to keep the wolf of want from the door and drinking sour wine, because the De-Lesseps crowd made the big cut in Panama swim with champagne.

French justice has no apologies or explanations to make because of its dealings with the national culprits.

It now transpires that Mrs. James Corbett has reconsidered her intentions to sue for a divorce, because of Champion Jim's escapades with some Eastern beauties and his published love letters.

Ollie says that Jim is a big, good natured fellow and being champion of the World, is subjected to a great many temptations. She had a good laugh over his love letters and as long as Jim keeps her well supplied with diamonds and seal-skins she will take him to her loving arms again.

Should fate make the charming Ollie a widow, she will not be long in the matrimonial market.

Cleveland is already making himself disliked by the old bourbon, by selecting Judge Gresham as his chief cabinet officer.

They say he is a too recent convert to the principles of Democracy, and there is a wailing and gnashing of teeth all along the line.

Cleveland does not expect to run again and will take the bit in his teeth. Gresham however is a man with such a splendid reputation that he would be an ornament to any cabinet.

The Reno Gazette has a scorching editorial on the question of bribery. It thinks when a member of the Legislature is approached with an offer of a bribe he should at once resent the insult by knocking the man down etc. A man who is offered a bribe can easily refuse it if he wants to without making a fuss or an ass of himself. When old Bill Gibson was offered a bribe in the Senate he replied: "I can't afford to take your money, I'm a gambler and would lose it in my profession."

General Weaver sends forth this all important advice to the friends of free silver coinage:

Loyalty to the cause demands that you not only subscribe for the paper that advocates it, but that you induce others to subscribe and pay as well.

Every dollar contributed towards support of a goldbug paper is a rivet driven into the financial claims of the Western people.—Denver News.

Few people want an extra session of Congress called in March, but as the end of the Fifty-second Congress approaches it becomes more probable that an early extra session may have to be called. If the Hawaii question should remain unsettled at that time an extra session following immediately upon the inauguration of President Cleveland will be among the probabilities.

This city pays over $25,000 a year for ham and bacon and other towns in the State in proportion.

This is the easiest climate in the world in which to raise hogs. There should be half a dozen pork packing establishments started in this state this Summer. If Nevada is to get out of the rut, it should begin to produce what it consumes.

Wheat now at 60 cents would go to $1 when our government restores silver to the place it occupied before Sherman so fraudulently displaced it.

A Mighty Fire.

No one should miss the Revival Meetings held in the Methodist Church each night this week. A great work of grace is in progress. *
